

CATHERINE GILLESPIE

Conflict Resolution and Harmony Expert, C-Suite/Board Culture and Communication Coach, Qualified Mediator and Investigator
Founder of Workplace Conflict Resolution and Workplace Harmony Solutions

I believe every individual, every team and every workplace matters.

THE BACK STORY...

Catherine Gillespie is a leader in the field of workplace conflict resolution and culture change.

With a background in education and employee relations, she now specialises in working with high conflict personalities and resolving high conflict situations. She has a Master's Degree in Conflict Resolution, a Master's Degree in Workplace and Employment Law, and is an Accredited Advanced Mediator. Catherine is also a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

When she isn't resolving workplace conflict or conducting workplace investigations, Catherine works proactively with clients developing harmonious workplaces.

Since establishing her own business in 2010, Catherine and her team of consultants have serviced clients through Australia, New Zealand, Malaysia, Fiji and East Timor.

Catherine's contribution to sport in Australia, both as a member of the Australian Netball Team and as an international coach and mentor, has led to her being the recipient of the Australian Sports Medal Award (for services to sport).
